"The Eastern shore of Georgian Bay is my home landscape. I know it intimately, carry it around with me, refer all other landscapes to it. It has determined my sense of scale, light and colour, and enters all of my work"

From Georgian Bay Drawings by John Hartman

Northgate Inlet looking West, John Hartman

Artist Profile: John Hartman

The GBLT is proud to feature the work of John Hartman, among other talented artists, in our upcoming Art Auction.

John has lived on the Georgian Bay for all of his 56 years. He splits his working year as an artist between his studio in Lafontaine and his island south of Britt. He shows his paintings in Toronto (Nicholas Metivier Gallery), London, and Calgary. His works hang in the collections of major banks and law firms, and his works were featured in a solo book "Big North-The Paintings of John Hartman".
